We have introduced new process of Contractor addition that newly added Contractor will have Status as unapproved initially and it will not be visible on all transactional pages. As we change the status of contractor to "Regular" or "On Trial" it will be made visible on these pages. We have separate rights for the contractor status change so that it keeps control to the changing contractor status.